Above are the statistics on the family. Francois senior and Junior died in 1708 in an epidemic.

Marie Leber is age 63 and will live another 27 years.
Pierre Herve died in 1736, just 7 years after this contract.
Rene is about 41 years of age
Marie Elizabeth is about 34 years of age
Francois is about 31 years old (My ancestor)
Antoine is about 24 years of age

Marie Leber gave the principal farm that they lived on in LaPrairie to her son Rene, but she and her husband continued to live there until their deaths, and were supported by Rene. Why pick Rene. He was a very successful voyager and a bourgeois. He was also the eldest child.

Can you believe that both Marie Leber and Pierre Herve asked for 120 Requiem Masses after their death? That sounds unreasonable today but maybe it was more common then. I assume that they had to pay for each Mass.
